Information on the return of RIGK-licensed packaging for your German customers

We, the MicroChemicals GmbH, with our obligation under § 15 of the Packaging Act and offer our German customers the return and recycling of the following packaging via the RIGK take-back system for industrial and commercial packaging:

- bottles
- canisters
- drums

You receive our products in packaging that are labeled with this symbol:

This will enable you to deliver your used packaging free of charge to the RIGK collection points

RIGK-SYSTEM: Packaging of non-hazardous products, transport packaging. Initiate the free delivery of packaging by sending an e-mail to dispo@rigk.de or calling the free service number +49 800 308600-3 (within Germany).

For further information, see RIGK-SYSTEM

RIGK-G-SYSTEM: Packaging of non-hazardous products. Initiate free return of the hazardous packaging by sending an e-mail to g-system@rigk.de or calling the free service number +49 800 308600-1 (within Germany).

For more information, see RIGK-G\(Hazardous substance\) SYSTEM

Together we help to ensure that packaging is returned to the circular economy and recycled.

With kind regards,
Your MicroChemicals-Team
